MSC ANNOUNCES
FINAL RESULTS OF SELF-TENDER OFFER

MELVILLE, NY and DAVIDSON, NC, August 10, 2016 – MSC INDUSTRIAL SUPPLY CO. (NYSE: MSM), “MSC” or the “Company,” a premier distributor of Metalworking and Maintenance, Repair and Operations supplies to industrial customers throughout North America, announced today the final results of its “modified Dutch auction” tender offer for up to $300 million of its Class A common stock at a price per share not less than $66.00 and not greater than $72.50, which expired at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on August 4, 2016.

Based on the final count by the depository for the tender offer, a total of 3,821,279 shares of the Company’s Class A common stock were validly tendered and not validly withdrawn at or below the price of $72.50 per share. Since the tender offer was not fully subscribed, no proration was required and all shares validly tendered and not validly withdrawn were accepted for purchase at the same purchase price of $72.50 per share. As such, the Company accepted for purchase a total of 3,821,279 shares of the Company’s Class A common stock at a purchase price of $72.50 per share, for a total cost of approximately $277.0 million, excluding fees and expenses related to the tender offer. These shares represent approximately 6.2% of the Company’s total outstanding common stock as of August 1, 2016. The depository for the tender offer will promptly pay for the shares accepted for purchase pursuant to the tender offer.

As previously announced, on July 5, 2016, the Company entered into a stock purchase agreement with the holders of the Company’s Class B common stock under which such shareholders agreed not to participate in the tender offer and the Company agreed to purchase from such shareholders following completion of the tender offer, a pro rata number of shares at the same price per share as will be paid by the Company in the tender offer, such that their percentage ownership and voting power in the Company would remain substantially the same as prior to the tender offer. The closing of the purchase under the stock purchase agreement is subject to customary conditions and is expected to occur on August 19, 2016, the eleventh business day following the expiration date of the tender offer, or on such later date as the parties shall mutually agree. Based on the 3,821,279 shares the Company accepted for purchase in the tender offer, the Company expects to purchase 1,152,049 shares from the Class B shareholders under the stock purchase agreement at a purchase price of $72.50 per share for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $83.5 million. As such, the Company expects to repurchase a total of 4,973,328 shares of its Class A common stock through the tender offer and the stock purchase agreement at a price of $72.50 per share, for a total cost of approximately $360.6 million, excluding fees and expenses. These shares represent approximately 8.1% of the Company’s total outstanding common stock as of August 1, 2016.

The dealer managers for the tender offer were J.P. Morgan Securities LLC and Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC. Georgeson LLC served as the information agent for the tender offer and Computershare served as the depository for the tender offer.

Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements: Statements in this Press Release may constitute forward-looking statements. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, that address activities, events or developments that we expect, believe or anticipate will or may occur in the future, including statements about the Company's intention to purchase shares in the tender offer and under the stock purchase agreement, are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated by these forward-looking statements. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof. The inclusion of any statement in this release does not constitute an admission by MSC or any other person that the events or circumstances described in such statement are material. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in forward-looking statements include: our ability to complete the share purchases in the tender offer and under the stock purchase agreement, general economic conditions in the markets in which we operate, current economic, political, and social conditions, changing customer and product mixes, competition, industry consolidation and other changes in the industry distribution sector, volatility in commodity and energy prices, the outcome of potential government or regulatory proceedings or future litigation relating to pending or future claims, inquiries or audits, credit risk of our customers, the risk of cancellation or rescheduling of customer orders, work stoppages or other business interruptions (including those due to extreme weather conditions) at transportation centers or shipping ports, the risk of loss of key suppliers, key brands or supply chain disruptions, our dependence on our information systems and the risk of business disruptions arising from changes to our information systems, and disruptions due to catastrophic events, power outages, natural disasters, computer system or network failures, computer viruses, physical or electronics break-ins and cyber-attacks, our dependence on key personnel, failure to comply with applicable environmental, health and safety laws and regulations, goodwill and intangible assets recorded as a result of our acquisitions could be impaired, problems with successfully integrating acquired operations, and disclosing our use of "conflict minerals" in certain of the products we distribute could raise reputational and other risks. Additional information concerning these and other risks is described under "Risk Factors" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in the reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q that we file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. We assume no obligation to update any of these forward-looking statements.
